BUENOS AIRES BIG GAME

LOS CRESTONES LODGE, BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

Located in the Province of Buenos Aires, just over an hour from the Ezeiza International airport, Los Crestones Lodge was named for the Rosy Billed Pochard; Argentina's most distinctive and sought-after duck.

Located in mature parkland and surrounded by fertile countryside, Los Crestones offers discerning hunters a combination of great wingshooting and the best Wild Black Buck and Axis Deer hunting in South America.

The lodge is a magnificent Argentine estancia, possessing all the comfort and style you'd expect of a David Denies' property. Guests sleep in one of eight single bedrooms, each with a private bathroom. In the evening, you'll enjoy exquisite meals and fine Argentine wines in our 5-star dining room.

The biggest herds of wild Blackbuck Antelope in the world live not far from the lodge. And right around the lodge you'll find some of the best wild Axis deer hunting in the country. These full- or half-day hunts are an easy add-on to your wingshooting adventure.

Guides at Los Crestones are big game hunting professionals, who know these private lands inside and out. They can organize a hunt and provide an accurate rental rifle. They will also guide bowhunters, but we suggest you allow more time if you'd like to pursue either species with bow.

Los Crestones offers opportunities to enjoy great bird and big game hunting out of the same lodge, and with the special care and luxury services inherent to the David Denies experience. Big Game only trips are also available from May 1 to December 15.
